Mrs Cleveland's MATH Class:

We're Rounding, Rounding, Rounding in Math Class! We are working on rounding to the nearest 10's, 100's, and even 1000's. One way we're remembering, is identifying the "Target" number, and then looking directly at the number to the right:

"If it's four or less - let it rest. If it's five or more - raise the score."

Also placing numbers on a number line or "mountain" is a helpful visual to show where a value lands between two round numbers (10 or 20, 100 or 200, or 1000 or 2000.)

Ms.M's class

- ❖ We are continuing to read The Wild Robot - Roz has taken on the role of a parent. We continue to learn about how she
- ❖ We continue to edit our recounts, understanding the importance of a 'bold beginning' and add sensory details through out to keep our readers interested.
- ❖ Global maker Day was a hit! Check out our images below!
- ❖ Josh Max came to class to chat about online safety, passwords, malware and safe downloading. Students had MANY questions and showed amazing

M. P's French Class: Students continue to work on les verbes être et avoir. They have a quiz on these verbes coming up next Friday, October 27th. Students will be required to make sentences and conjugate these verbs appropriately.

Mme. Sylvie's class de francais - Please Mme Sylvie's slides for what students have worked on this week

Hebrew

Students have been learning about the Autumn season and using and applying the Hebrew vocabulary to explain and provide detail to the characteristics of this season, the smells, sounds, weather and sights. Last week students also took a meaningful place within their Hebrew classes to write cards and letters of encouragement and support and care to the Israeli soldiers during challenging and unsettling time.
