

CYBER SAFETY

LEARNING GOALS

- Understand the basics of staying safe online.
- Learn about Canadian laws and consequences

STAYING SAFE ONLINE

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

FRIEND REQUESTS

A person you don't know sends you a friend request, and you accept because they look your age.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

FRIEND

REQUESTS

Don't add or meet online friends without a parent's permission.

GAMING CHATTER

You're playing a game online and the person you're playing against starts asking questions, like where you live and how old you are.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

PRIVACY

Keep your personal information private!
DO NOT share your name, location, phone number or birthday.

PASSWORD CREATION

You've just signed up for a new email account and need to make a password. You use the same password for all your accounts so it's easy to remember: 12345678

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

PASSWORDS

A strong password is the number one thing you can have to keep yourself safe online.

A strong password is:

- at least 8 characters long;
- a combination of uppercase, lowercase, numbers and symbols;
- not a word that can be easily guessed by anyone;
- different for all your accounts.

PASSWORDS

You tell your best friend your email password because you trust them.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

PASSWORDS

As a student, your parents are the only people you should tell your password to.

NEW ACCOUNTS

While playing on your device, you see an ad for a new game that looks fun. In order to play, you need to make a new account with your name, age and email address.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

ACCOUNTS

Only create accounts or add extensions with trusted sites. Tell a parent what you are doing online. Ask a trusted adult if you need help or are unsure of any online activity.

FORWARDING MESSAGES

Your friend emails you an unkind picture or joke about someone you know, behind their back. The message attached says that if you don't forward it to 10 people, you'll have 10 years bad luck.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

BULLYING

Don't share anything you wouldn't want teachers or family members to see or know about.

Tell someone if you think cyber bullying is happening to you or other people.

FAKE NEWS

You saw an article online that said a couple in California named their child, 🤗 , with just the emoji as the name. You can't wait to tell your friends about it the next day!

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

QUESTION

Do not believe everything you read online. There is a lot of incorrect information on the internet. Speak to a parent, teacher, or do another search to check the validity.

SCHOOL RULES, CANADIAN LAWS

AND CONSEQUENCES

WHAT ARE THE RULES?

Speak kindly to others online or share images without their consent

Do not pretend to be someone else online.

Never download something from an unknown site.

Do not copy something from the internet and pretend it's yours.

Report anything suspicious.

Do not login using someone else's password.

ELEMENTARY & HIGH SCHOOLS

Possible Outcomes for not following the rules:

- Loss of device
- Laptop checks
- Email home
- In-school suspension

UNIVERSITY & BEYOND

Possible Outcomes for not following the rules:

- Police confiscation and search of device
- Financial fines
- Expulsion / Firing
- Jail

IN CONCLUSION

The Internet is a wonderful, vast, helpful “world” that allows us to find incredible information, create incredible things, and make connections with incredible people.

It can ALSO be a tricky place to navigate with tricky people. If you ever feel like you’ve been tricked, talk with your parents or a trusted adult. Sometimes our brains are so worried about getting in trouble that we think we should keep it a secret, but it is those moments when it is most important to tell a trusted grown up. We will help you get unstuck and make sure you are safe.

QUESTIONS?

What additional information do you want to know about today's topic of staying safe online?

